LATONIA PATRONAGE CUT

WINTRY CONDITIONS AT KENTUCKY TRACE EXERT EFFECT ON ATTENDANCE.

Rain Falls While Card Is Being Decided and Last Two Races of Day Are Run in the Mud-Results in the Main Formful,

Cincinnati, O., October 26.—The sudden change from summerlike to wintry weather, such as prevailed this afternoon, was keenly felt here and resulted in a falling off of the patronage at Latonia. Rain fell steadily after the running of the fourth race and the last two races were run in the mud and the final dask in semi-darkness. Fairly interesting sport attended the running of most of the races. Favorites and second choices made a clean sweep of the card. The best race of the day, a six-furlong sprint handicap for a purse of $700, went to Sen. J. N. Camden's fast gelding, Bringhurst, which, after a sharp drive, outstayed Gipsy Love by a scant neck, with Grover Hughes third. The winner led throughout and showed rare gameness in the final drive.

A coup of considerable proportions was successfully put over in the second race and profited a cotterle of sharps handsomely. Jefferson Livingston's English-bred youngster, Royal II., was the medium and he scored impressively, in decided contrast to a former start at Louisville. On that occasion Loftus took him back to last place immediately after the start and seemingly was content to let him gailop along at his leisure. Trainer Brandt was considerably put out after the race over Loftus' action, but accepted the rider's explanation that he was forced to take the colt out of contention on account of interference at the start. Loftus made no mistakes today, kept him clear of trouble and the colt won in a canter. The youngster is a striking looking individual and has been tried highly since his arrival in this country. P. T. Chinn, who bought him in England for Jefferson Livingston's account, is said to have profited extensively by the colf's victory today.

The mile dash for two-year-olds resuited in a victory for the frequent disappointing Leo Ray. This colt has on several occasions shown remarkable trials, but has falled dismally. He showed a light class performance today by coming from far back in the stretch to dispose of McAdoo, which seemed a certain winner a furlon bilder on the Hastings—Crimea colt, the star of the sale.

O. A. Bianchi (Daggie Smith) announced today that he would add the yearling half-brother to Emerson Cochran to the sale tomorrow, which will begin at 10:30 sharp.

Miss Declare and Royal II., the successful two-horse combination, yielded $40.75 for $2. Bring-hurst, Prince Hermis and Bonauza, the three-horse paid $49.15.

E. C. Hopper and Carroll B, Reid were among the new visitors at the track today.

The stewards today concluded their investigation in the Goose-Hank O'Day case and handed down the following ruling: "The original testimony in connection with the suspicious circumstances preceding and immediately following the Hank O'Day race at Churchill Downs not being sufficiently confirmed or substantiated by the subsequent investigation by the stewards, the temporary suspension of jockey R. going on the Juarez special, which will leave here Monday, November 9, is within a few dollars of what the same shipment would cost by freight from Latonia to El Paso, Tex.

Kay Spence will ship all the horses of his string and those owned by W. J. Weber, which he has in training at Latonia, to the Juarez course on the special with the exception of his three-year-old gelding, Hodge. He has arranged to turn Hodge out at John D. Carr's farm near Lexington at the close of the meeting here and will not take the gelding up again until he returns to Kentucky next spring with the horses he will race at Juarez. It was at Carr's farm tint Old Rosebud wintered last season. Spence has had so much bad luck this year with Hodge that he has concluded to make this move with him, though the gelding raced in fine form at Juarez last winter.

W. M. Wallace did not bring his three horses to Latonia from Louisvillle until Friday last, thinking perhaps they would benefit by a slight rest up there so what racing they do at Latonia will be the last two weeks of the present meeting. He at present only has here the two-year-old Yacnac and another youngster of that age, and the good four-year-old filly The Widow Moon. This daughter of Stalwart has had bad luck this autumn in falling into races where she has been up against the best sprinters in training. She is doing nicely, however, now as usual, and can be expected to win a purse or two before the meeting winds up here.

Trainer J. O. Keene has formed a company with turfman J. Cloher and trainer T. Taylor, a brother of Jockey W. Taylor, and this firm have gathered together already a string of six horses, which will be shipped at the close of the meeting here to the Jockey Club Juarez track in Mexico for winter racing. The horses they have at present in thier string for this purpose are a yearling coft by the Puturity winner Ormondale: a yearling coft by the Puturity winner Ormondale: a yearling the stable of J. M. PROGRESS AT ORIENTAL PARK.

Havana, Cuba. October 26.—Work is being rushed along by the Cuba-American Jockey Club on its new course at Marianao and a large force of men are busy grading about the grounds where the stables will be erected. The track proper at Oriental Park was completed a couple of weeks ago and most of the framework for the spacious steel grandstand is already in position. The track has been built in a saucer shaped valley and the grandstand is elevated twenty feet above the track. This insures a perfect view of the entire course. The soil of the new track is a black loam. The plans call for a model plant and the better class in Cuba will be catered to.

General Manager Brown's reputation of doing nothing by halves will be lived up to and Oriental Park will be vastly superior to City Park, New Orleans; Moncrief Park, Jacksonville; or Laurel Park in Maryland, all three of which were constructed by him.

Marianao is a suburb of Havana and is about a fifteen minute car ride from the city. The track occupies a picturesque location surrounded by hills.

A liberal policy will be pursued by the management in regard to the wants of the horsemen. The feed store and kitchen privileges have been eliminated, which means that horsemen can board their help and purchase their feed where they choose. The proprietors of several kitchens have already announced their intention of coming over to set up either on the track or adjacent to the course. Havana is easy of access. It is only five hours from Key West and those who prefer shipping that way can load their horses at any point in the United States and unload them at Oriental Park. Two large boats have been built by the East Coust railroad to ferry trains from Key West across to Cuba.

UIS FEUSTEL'S TWO-YEAR-OLD REDUCES LAUREL RECORD FOR FIVE FURLONGS.

ns Distance in :59% and Wins by Half a Dozen Lengths with His Jockey Pulling Up—H. C. Hallenbeck Wins Race and Loses Horse.

Baltimore, Md., October 26.—H. C. Hallenbeck won a race this afternoon and lost a horse when Working Lad accounted for the selling handicap, at one mile and a sixteenth, which was the feature of the afternoon's card. The son of Yorkshire Boy was securely pocketed during the early part of the race and Turner had him first on the inside, then on the outside, again on the inside and finally had to go to the outside again to win from Thornhill and Spearhead.

Two and one-fifth seconds were knocked off the five-furlong track record when He Will, owned and trained by Louis Fenstel, formerly trainer for August Belmont, took the opener for two-year-olds. He Will outbroke and outran his company all the way, covered the five furlongs in 59%, and won by half a dozen lengths with his jockey pulling up.

Harry Payne Whitney's Skunber II., by Hamburg — Forget, which raced abroad, was returned winner of the six furlong handicap. It was the first victory of Skunber II. in this country.

Following is a list of the horses that Charles Boots turned over to Andrew Blakeley: Lady Instellator, Conquestador, Vinetellator, Mortgyle and Borgond. These, with the remainder of the Blakeley string, will be raced at Charleston and Havana. The Boots lot are all maiden-five and six-year-olds.

William N. Northey, secretary and treasurer of the Montreal Jockey Club, was a visitor at Laurel this afternoon. He is here inspecting the mutuel plant and before his return to Montreal he will look over the plants at Latonia and Pimlico. Work of installing the mutuels at Blue Bonnets is already under way.

Joseph McLennan was at the course today. He distributed among the horsemen stake blanks for the Charleston meeting and reported much interest in the meeting among race followers. He predicts that the meeting are plannetto Park this winter will excel previous meetings held there.

Jockey Byrne was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the barrier.

William L. Oliver left for Latonia yesterday to attend the yearling sales. It i

The water jump in the steeplechase course at Woodbine Park, Toronto, is being removed to the center of the field, directly opposite and facing the grand stand. It is planned to change the course next season. In place of the straight run down the back stretch the horses will cross the field twice, about the center, which should make the steeplechases more spectacular.

PUTTING FAIR GROUNDS IN ORDER.

New Orleans, Octber 25.—Evidence that the coming winter meeting of the Business Men's Racing Association, which will open Jan. 1, will be a "go" was shown when work was started on the fair ground's track, so that it will be ready to receive thoroughbreds in the near future. The Joseph Schwartz Carriage Company has donated two power trucks for the purpose of putting the track in condition, and the unique sight of automobile trucks putting a race course in shape for horses to run over will be witnessed.

Walter O. Parmer of Nashville, Tenn., a well-known breeder and one of the owners of the Windsor race track, is here and had a long conference with Judge Murphy before the latter left for Kentucky.

with Judge Murphy before the latter left for Kentucky.

Mr. Parmer is enthusiastic over the prospect of the revival of racing in New Orleans. Speaking of the matter, he said: "I am here looking over the cotton situation. It is the first time I have been in New Orleans since racing closed. If you race I will spend most of my winter here. I have four two-year-olds that I was going to turn out. If you race I will let Ed Moore bring them down here."

Menger advices from Beighum indicate that the Germans, who have crossed the Yser in enormous force, are pressing slowly forward, but encountering determined opposition. At other points in the north of France, notably to the east and northeast of Ypres and between Lille and Armentieres, the German offensive is energetic.
